SOUTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVES AWARDS
ALAN DAVIS 2009 OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

Columbia, SC -- The South Carolina Society of Association Executives (SCSAE) recognized Alan B. Davis as Executive of the Year during the 4th annual conference June 14-16, 2009, at the Wild Dunes Resort on Isle of Palms. Mr. Davis was honored by the SCSAE with a plaque and a signed resolution of the recognition from the South Carolina House of Representatives and Senate.

Mr. Davis has served as Executive Director for the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA), headquartered in Columbia, for 13 years. During his time there, he has led his Association to win a number of SCSAE awards including 2008 Best Magazine Journal and Best Membership Recruitment and Promotion Efforts. He has served on many SCSAE committees and is a past Board member and President. He has also been recognized for his work on behalf of Rotary International, NACA Foundation and Zeta Psi Fraternity of North America. In 2009, he is serving as the Chairperson of the Council of Higher Education Management Associations. Mr. Davis has a BA and MA from Stetson University.

“Alan’s tenure as Executive Director of NACA can be categorized as very successful. We have seen tremendous growth in our association during the time Alan has been in his role,” said Regina Young Hyatt, Associate Dean of Students at the University of South Florida, the immediate past chair of the NACA Board of Directors.

SCSAE’s Executive of the Year Award is the highest honor for an association executive. This award is presented to those whose accomplishments as association executives have been outstanding. Only twenty-four executives have been awarded this honor.

“Alan has served as a mentor to many of us in the association management business,” stated Kathy Williams, CAE, 2006 SCSAE Executive of the Year. “His knowledge and expertise place him in a very unique class of individuals.”

SCSAE is an organization of chief executive officers and professional staff who manage a variety of trade, professional and nonprofit associations as well as companies that provide products and services to the association community. Organized in 1963, SCSAE has more than 250 association executives, meeting planners, association staff members and business partners as members.
